

DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS (ROTC)
UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO
1836 LOMAS BLVD., NE
ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO 87131-0001

REPLY TO ATTENTION OF:

ATCC-EEN-MUM

27 March 2015

MEMORANDUM FOR 2015 Tom Smith New Mexico Chapter of the Association of Former Intelligence Officers. ATTN: Col J.C. Cantergiani (USAF Ret)

SUBJECT: Nomination for the 2015 Tom Smith New Mexico Chapter of the Association of Former Intelligence Officers Scholarship, Cadet Brianna G. Ireland, Army ROTC

1. Cadet Brianna G. Ireland receives my absolute highest recommendation as the University of New Mexico Army ROTC nominee for the 2015 Tom Smith New Mexico Chapter of the Association of Former Intelligence Officers Scholarship.
2. Cadet Ireland is a student in the University of New Mexico Honors College. She has a cumulative 4.07 GPA towards a Bachelor of Liberal Arts degree and is scheduled to graduate on May 9, 2015.
3. Cadet Ireland received an overall E (Excellent; highest rating possible) with 13 dimensional E's at the Leader Development and Assessment Course (LDAC). She is in the top 10% of her ROTC class and is number 1 of 24 on the current PMS MSIV OML. Additionally, she is a Distinguished Military Graduate (DMG) and is in top 10% of National OML for Mission Set 2015. She is currently the ROTC Cadet Battalion Commander and was selected to attend the George C. Marshall (GCM) Leadership and Awards Seminar.
4. During her time at the University of New Mexico, Cadet Ireland has participated in numerous extracurricular activities including Ranger Challenge, flag detail, color guard, numerous ROTC recruiting and fundraising events, served on student cabinet, as a tutor, on both intramural and community athletics, worked part time job, and attended both the Western Hemisphere Institute for Security Cooperation (WHINSEC) and Drill Cadet Leadership Training (DCLT). Cadet Ireland was also a Leader at the Kennedy-Lugar YES scholarship orientation in Washington, DC; served as an elected official with AFS-USA (international exchange program); and participated in an educational exchange to Ecuador.
5. Cadet Ireland is an extremely intelligent, mentally tough, and adaptive young leader who has an unstoppable can-do attitude. She has demonstrated remarkable success in all endeavors – academic, physical fitness, personal, and in ROTC. Cadet Ireland has already been selected for the Active Component in the Military Intelligence branch. She will make a phenomenal Military Intelligence officer in the United States Army.
6. I am the point of contact and can be reached at 505-277-2274 or kenneth.t.crawford6.mil@mail.mil.

KENNETH T. CRAWFORD
LTC, AV
Professor of Military Science